

To Whom It May Concern,

Beneficiary Ratio Policy

In accordance with the Codes of Good Practice for Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment, this policy serves to confirm that Abused and Abandoned Kids Educational Excursions NPC (AAAKEE, the "organisation") currently caters for an enlisted beneficiary-base (the children's care centres and other institutions we cater for on a regular basis) that accommodates a total ratio of no less than 75% South African Black citizens.

The table below outlines our enlisted beneficiaries:

Ithembelihle Lsen School for Disabled Children	Primrose, Johannesburg
Jumma Masjid &amp; Educational Institute	Westbury, Johannesburg
Lerato Child &amp; Youth Care Centre	Kookrus, Meyerton
NG Welfare: Catherine Robson Children's Home	Duncanville, Vereeniging
Polokong Children's Village	Evaton, Gauteng
Reamogetswe Resource Centre	Muldersdrift, Gauteng

Written confirmation of the information provided in this policy may be obtained from an Independent Competent Person on request. Should you require such confirmation, kindly do get in touch with us.

This policy was last updated on 16 February 2016.

Yours in Thanks,

L F De Gouveia

Chairperson and Managing Director